

Director of Investor Relations

JOB DESCRIPTION

WhiteHaven is a private equity firm concentrated on creating multifamily value in the Greater Phoenix area. We specialize in the acquisition and renovation of multifamily communities.

JOB SUMMARY

We are seeking a highly motivated and experienced Director of Investor Relations to lead our investor relations efforts for our multifamily real estate investment portfolio and fund. The ideal candidate will have extensive experience in investor relations, a deep understanding of the multifamily real estate market, and a proven track record of managing relationships with investors. The Director of Investor Relations will be responsible for managing existing investor relationships, identifying and cultivating new investor relationships, and representing the company to the investment community.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- > Develop and implement investor relations strategies that support the company's strategic objectives and goals.
- > Serve as the primary point of contact for investors, managing all communication and relationship management activities.
- > Develop and maintain strong relationships with current and potential investors, including high net worth individuals, family offices, institutional investors, and investment funds.
- > Provide regular updates to investors on the company's performance, including financial results, asset management activities, and market trends.
- > Coordinate and manage investor events, including conference calls, webcasts, meetings, and investor conferences.
- > Collaborate with the management team to ensure alignment with investor expectations and goals.
- > Analyze and evaluate the competitive landscape, market trends, and investor sentiment to inform investor relations strategies and activities.
- > Provide feedback and insights to the executive team on investor sentiment and market trends.
- > Ensure compliance with all relevant laws, regulations, and policies related to investor relations activities.

QUALIFICATIONS

- > Bachelor's degree in Finance, Business Administration, Economics, or related field; Master's degree preferred.
- > Minimum of eight years of experience in investor relations or related field, with a focus on real estate investment management or private equity.
- > Deep understanding of the multifamily real estate market, including market trends, investment strategies, and asset management.
- > Strong knowledge of investment management concepts, including portfolio construction, asset allocation, and risk management.
- > Proven track record of managing relationships with investors, including high net worth individuals, family offices, institutional investors, and investment funds.
- > Excellent communication, negotiation, and relationship management skills.
- > Strong analytical and strategic thinking skills.
- > Familiarity with relevant laws, regulations, and policies related to investor relations.
- > Willingness to travel as needed.

BENEFITS

- > 100% paid health, dental and vision insurance.
- > 401(k) matching.
- > Unlimited paid time off.
- > Wellness program.
